Money Recovered and Thief in Hood.

The police were yesterday informed that a colored boy named George White had stolen $18 from Edith Thornton at Fanny Preston's colored house of ill repute. Officer Desmond was put on the case, and arrested White, and succeeded in recovering all but $3.20 of the missing money. Of the sum $4.70 was returned by a boy named James Wicker, to whom he had given it for safe keeping. White was taken before a justice and sent to jail.

Camp Meeting at Elm Grove.

The Church of God, of Elm Grove is holding camp meeting at Halstead's grove, near Elm Grove. The meetings are conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bartlebaugh, assisted by Rev. B. Craft, a talented young minister from Ohio. Prof. Bartlebaugh, a brother of the pastor, conducts the music, playing a splendid accompaniment on the auto-harp. Lunatics at the Jail.

The people living in the neighborhood of the jail are kicking about the noise made by some of the insane patients confined there. They say they can't sleep. A negro named Strauder has already been there three months, and two women two months and a week respectively. It seems a shame that these unfortunates should be kept at the jail, instead of being sent to the asylum at Weston, where they can have proper attention, but the authorities at Weston say the asylum is full, and that they have no room for more patients.

Yesterday's Police Court.

In the police court yesterday Hamilton Bros. were fined $1 and costs for failing to put a signal light on a street obstruction.

BIGGEST OF THEM ALL.

Is What the Butcher's Picnic on Thursday Promises to Be.

The butchers of this city and vicinity will have their great annual parade, picnic and barbecue, Thursday, August 11. At 9 o'clock a. m. the parade will form on Eighteenth street, under the marshaling of G. H. Medick, and will proceed up Woods street to Sixteenth, down Sixteenth to Chapline, up Chapline to Fourteenth, down Fourteenth to Main, down Main to Twenty-fourth, up Twenty-fourth to Market, down Market to Twenty-seventh, up Twenty-seventh to Chapline, down Chapline to Thirty-third, up Thirty-third to Eoff, down Eoff to Thirty-ninth, up Thirty-ninth to Jacob, up Jacob to Thirty-third, down Thirty-third to Eoff, up Eoff to Twenty-seventh, down Twenty-seventh to Chapline, up Chapline to Twentieth, down Twentieth to Market, up Market to Seventh, down Seventh to Main, down Main to Tenth, over the Suspension bridge, out Zane street to Huron, down Huron to Virginia, on Virginia to Penn, down Penn to the Fair grounds.

After the parade the barbecue committee, consisting of Lewis Zoetkior, B. Gartner, S. E. Dorsey, George Bowers and Charles Hoffmann, will attend to the hungry, for they will have an abundance of meat for all who attend. Especial care will be taken this year at the barbecue that the boys that were so untidy last year will be kept away from the table.

After the barbecue has been finished, the bicycle race will start. This race will be under the management of Mr. Charles R. Goetz, the druggist. The entries for the bicycle races are Jason C. Stamp, Henry Maulke, J. C. Bihel-daffer, Walter Worle, Henry Shaub and several others. Medals can be seen at the Hub, in the window.

After this race is finished, the butchers' trotting and pacing race will follow. This race, and all the horse racing, will be in the hands of John McGannon, Charles Rohrig, George Schadt and A. J. Goodhue. The following entries have been made: Mr. Lewis Eberling, of Bellaire, enters b. m. Betty, trotter; John Wenzell, of Wheeling, enters b. h. Roy, trotter; C. A. Hall, of Wheeling, enters br. g. Tracy, trotter; William Bayha, b. m. Nellie, pacer, of Wheeling; Max Burthell, b. g. Jim C., trotter, of Washington, Pa.

The lamb killing contest will be between George Rohrig, 14 years of age, son of Mr. Charles Rohrig, of the Eighth ward, and Frank Tiggebeck, 14 years of age. He was born in Germany, raised in Pittsburgh, and is now working for Mr. William Burke, of Bridgeport. Look out for an interesting contest between these two boys, for they are both confident of winning.

After the horse races, the great calf killing contest will take place, under the management of G. H. Medick, William Bayha and Lewis Zoetkior. It was impossible for Mr. Charles E. Dannenberg to make a match with Mr. John H. Born, of Pittsburgh, for this year's picnic, so the association barred Mr. Dannenberg from this contest, and the following have entered: Mr. Peter Troesch, formerly from Chicago, but of recent years with Mr. Fred Welmer, of this city. He is considered very fast. Mr. William Schairer, a Wheeling boy, who for a number of years dressed calves at Pittsburgh. People from that city say, "Keep your eye on him." Charles Harper, born a butcher, has proved himself a wonder in dressing calves and lambs in a hurry. He is a son of the well known butcher, Mr. Fred Harper, of the Eighth ward, and people that are acquainted with this young man from that end of the city say he will be watching in this contest. Mr. George Beiswenger, also an Eighth ward boy, but of late years has been an employee of John C. Medick. His many friends have teased him to enter in this contest. He has not as much faith in himself as his friends have, but he will not be so far behind when time is called for the first man.

Then there will be amusements for the old, the middle-aged and the young. The Opera House band, of Wheeling, and Meister's band, of Ethaville, will furnish the street and concert music for the day, and William Mayer's string band will furnish music for the merry dancers.

Ladies will have charge of the eating and refreshment stands. In fact, any person wishing to have a pleasant day should not fail to go to this picnic, and go early.

All the meat shops in the city will be closed at 8 o'clock a. m., and remain closed that day.

John Dunkle, chairman, and the rest of the committee on arrangements have done everything to make this the biggest and most successful picnic ever held here.

Newspapers Endorse.
